In this live online seminar, you will learn and understand the key principles of the Environmental Social Governance (ESG) model. The focus is on the governance pillar, where we will show you how you can drive sustainable corporate development. You will learn how to integrate risk management into your company and which legal framework conditions must be observed.

The seminar offers you practical insights and in-depth knowledge to successfully implement ESG strategies in your company.

Benefit from interactive presentations and experienced instructors who will provide you with the latest best practices and requirements.

This training is part of the ESG series with the other training courses "ESG Compass: The Social Responsibility Factor" and "ESG Compass: The Governance Factor".
